

Entering into Canada

Visiting hunters must have a up-to-date passport and clear Canada Customs regardless of mode of travel.

You may be asked about the purpose of your trip, the length of your stay, who you are hunting with, etc.

It is wise to carry written verification (e.g. a contract or you outfitter brochure).

All alcohol, tobacco and firearms must be declared.

REASON ENTRY INTO CANADA COULD BE REFUSED

Prior criminal convictions could hinder entry into Canada.

For more details visit the Canada Border Crossing Services website at www.bordercrossing.ca.

Alternatively, you can call 1-800-438-7020 and ask for Lucy Perillo.

If you have any type of criminal conviction (even if you've been charged and not convicted), you should notify your outfitter or call Canada Border Crossing Services well in advance to pre-arrange clearance
